

English Language Arts Section

Julie Joslin

Julie Joslin serves as the Section Lead for English Language Arts. Julie taught at the middle school level for ten years, high school for nine years, ESOL for two years, and enjoyed one year of second grade. She worked as a literacy coach, building administrator, and district director prior to joining DPI. Julie holds a masters degree in English as well as a doctorate in Educational Leadership.

Lisa McIntosh

Lisa McIntosh serves as an Elementary Consultant for English Language Arts. Lisa taught at the elementary level for 9 years and in various Gifted Education programs for 14 years. She worked as a Lead teacher in English Language Arts for grades 3-8 and an Instructional Facilitator in grades 3-5 prior to joining DPI in 2007. Lisa holds an Elementary Education degree in K-6 and a Master of Arts degree in Administration and Curriculum. She is certified in Gifted Education K-12.

Dan Tetreault

Dan Tetreault serves as an elementary English Language Arts consultant and Responsiveness to Instruction (RtI) coordinator. Dan taught at the early elementary level, teaching kindergarten and first grade. He worked as a literacy trainer with the North Carolina Teacher Academy prior to joining DPI and served as a PreK-3 consultant within the North Carolina Office of Early Learning for five years. Dan holds a bachelors degree in Elementary Education and a master's degree in Educational Supervision of Curriculum and Instruction.

Cynthia Dewey

Cynthia Dewey serves as an English Language Arts Consultant for grades 3-8. Cynthia's teaching experience includes elementary, middle, high school, and university levels and involves work in several states. She also served as a literacy coach and central office administrator prior to joining NCDPI. Cynthia holds a Master's Degree in Reading Education as well as a Ph.D. in Education specializing in Language, Literacy, and Culture.